Van Haltren's Unlucky Muff Lets in the Only Run Brooklyne Easily Dispose of St. Louis Chicago Bents Boston, Baltimore Whitewaskes Pittsburgh, Cincinunti Settles Washington, and Philadelphia Wins Twice from Louisville-Notes

The New Yorks are tied this morning with the Cincinnat's for sixth place, and will decide the question at the Polo grounds this afternoon, when Buck Ewing's men will be here. Yesterday the local team was beaten by the Clevelands, the score being I to 0. Both Young and Clarke pitched finely, and the fielding was most brilliant, but an unfortunate must by Van Hal-tren let in the only run of the game. The Brooklyns had an eas; time with St. Louis, and are now in a good position to gain on the leaders. Chicago bent Boston, and the Baltimores covered the Pattsburghs with whitewash, so that the Cievelands, who play in Boston to-day, are only twenty-seven points behind the ex-champions, The Philadelphias battered the Louisvilles all over the lot in two games, and Cincinnati got way with Washington. The results:

Cleveland, 1: New York, 0. Chicage, 7: Boston, 4.

Baltimore, 11; Pittsburgh, 0. Philadelphia, 17: Louisville, 6 (first game) Philadelphia, 14; Louisville, 6 (second game). Cincinnati, 6; Washington, 3.

The loyal rooters, and there were about 3,000 of them, who went to the Polo grounds yesterday afternoon saw one of the prettlest games of the season. To be sure it didn't end the right way, for Cleveland won by the tantalizing score of 1 to 0. But there were so many exciting altuations and such an abundance of magnificent plays that few, if 'any, went away disastissed. Cy Young and Dad Clarke did the pitching, and from the start it was a battle between them. Young had speed and sailed the ball over the plate as large as a balloon. The New Yorks hit him much harder than the score shows, but they were unfortunate and sent the ball straight at some fielder. Clarke never pitched better in his life. His control was beautiful, and he went through the entire game without giving a base on balls. The crowd, readily appreciating his good work, cheered him again and sgain, while more than one crank asked his neighbor why Ward did not pitch Clarke regularly last year.

Van Haltren had the inisfortune to drop a fly ball in the seventh liming, with two out, that allowed McAleer to sprint all the way from second with the winning run. It was somewhat excusable, as he had to make a long run to get under the ball, which might have been corralled by Burke or Fuller. But Van made a wonderful running catch of Zimmer's bid for a homer, which really saved the game for the time being. He also cracked out two of the five hits made off Young, and worked hard for victory. So that to condemn the man for his mistake would be manifestly unjust, as he has been playing excellent ball lajely and satisfying the demands made by the most fastidious cranks.

"Chippy" McGarr, whose hair and moustache were dyed black some ten years ago, cut the principal figure in Cleveland a end of the game. He got two hits, one a three-bagger, and really with a scratch hit, but Clarke forced him at second on a bunt that "Chippy" fielded to Childs like lightning. Fuller sent a lucky such magnificent fielding as that

Probably no such magnificent fielding as that put up by both teams has been seen here in many a day. Van Haitren's muff was the only error charged against the New Yorks, while poor throws by McGarr and Zimmer were the only misplays on the visitors side. Schriver played first has like a veteran, Stafford was a host in himself at accond, and Farrell covered third in fine style. Wilson caught another star game and natical the only Clevelander that tried to steal sebond. McKean, Childs, Blake, McGarr, O'Connor, and Zimmer all rendered valuable sid to Young in his task of bowling over the Harlemites.

The New Yorks as usual, went to the bat flext able aid to Young in his task of bowling over the Harlemites.

The New Yorks, as usual, went to the bat first and were bianked, although Tiernan got a base on balls only to be thrown out at second. For the visitors, McKean made a hit, but Wilson stopped his attempted steal. In the second, after Farnell had retired, Van Haltren singled, date cound, accorded to the history of the could do. Bake research with a serach single and McGarr to ret i him at second, Farzel making a great stop a.u. arow. O't onnor also worked in a seratch and moved McGarr to second. Charke then made McAleer pop a dity to Tiernan, and Zimmer ferred O'Connor at second.

With one cut in the thigh, Fuller got four out-sprogram, a program we contains-Off Me ball over to Fuller at third in time to catch Mediarr. When Clarke stopped Medier's hot one and fielded him out, he had to raise his cap. The fifth inning was quickly played. Wilson and Clarke striking out. Van made his great catch of Zimmer's heavy liner, and Stafford stopped Hurseti's grounder in true Pfefferstyle. With two out in the sixth, Tiernan got a base on halis and stole second, only to be left. Than the visitors went out on six pitched balls. With Farreli out in the seventh, Van Haltren singled, but was caught at second. Then MeGarr hammered a three-bagger to left centre, and the crowd thought it was all over. Had the umpire called two balls strikes on "Chippy" this hit would never have been made, but those things often happen. The New York's infield played for the plate now, and when O'Connor grounded to Fuller McSarr had to stay on third. McAleer rapped one to Stufford, who returned the ball to Wilson in time to nail McGarr, who tried to score, McAleer had to stay on third. McAleer rapped one to Stufford, who returned the ball to Wilson in time to nail McGarr, who tried to score, McAleer had to struck big Young out on three pitched balls, and the first hal for the piate. Clarke struck big Young out on three pitched balls, and the hinning was over. New York's eighth has already been described, and the visitors went out in order in their half. The first half of the ninth resulted in Thornan sending a weak grounder to Young and Schriver and Farrell faming the air. The score:

SROOKLYN, 12; ST. LOUIS, 7.

Such butting as the Brooklyn and St. Louis teams indulged in yesterday surpasses all previous games played at Eastern Park this season. A total of fifty-eight bases was the record for the day. Until the sixth inning the Brooklyns labibon, then they began to size up Staler, and home rum, triples, doubles, and singles followed each other rapidly. Burrell was so surprised when he hit the ball over the left field felor in the seventh inning that he stopped at second bases, and he continued around the bases after being velical at by the coachers. It was the field hall his ever the fence this year. In the seventh inning lirown began with a homer to centre field, Cooliy singlest, and Quinn raced around the bases on his tremendaton, drive to deep left field. Staubach and Lieut. R. G. Betts of the Manhattan Bicycle Club have ridden over the New York-Philadelphia course to be traversed by those taking in the open century run of June 22 and 23. Arrangements were completed at the various places where stops for rest and refreshment will be scheduled. The route will be as scheduled until Belleville is reached, and will then run over the rouds to Bloomfield. Orange, Miliburn, Springfield, Scotch Plains, and Plainfield, instead of through Newark, Elizabeth, Cranford, and Westfield.

The Good Roade Association of Brooklyn will welcome all wheelmen who desire to take part in the Coney Island cycle path parade today, whether they have signified their intention of doing so or not. It is not too late to enter. The ranks will be open until 11s, o'clock this afternoon, and the parade will move at 2 o'clock sharp. All other cluss than those of Brooklyn and Long Island will parade in the second division, which will assemble not the Eastern Railway. Unattached wheelmen will parade in the third division, which will assemble near the main entrance to Prospect Park, with the right at the arch. Members of the League of American Wheelmen are especially urged to join in this parade, as the usual parade of the State division will not take place, Chief Consul Potter having, on behalf of that body, accepted the invitation of the Good Roads Association to join its ranks on this occasion. At least 10,000 wheelmen should-parade.

The various hieyele club houses and the wheelmen's headquarters at the Thirteenth Regiment armory, in Brooklyn, were alive with bloycle riders yesterday upon the occasion of the opening of the New York State division mil ait ake part in the bicycle parade to be held this afternoon, after which the bicycle races at Manhattan Heach will be taken to all the various points of interest within fifty miles of the various points of interest within fifty miles of the various Brooking clube.

READY FOR THE SUBURBAN.

DOMINO REGARDED AS A SURE WINNER OF THE BIG RACE.

The Field Will Be Larger than Most Persons Expected-Sir Watter Looked Upon on the Most Formidable of the Black Fellow's Competitors-A Splendid Programme for the Opening Day of the Coney Island Jockey Club's Meeting. The black four-year-old Domino, son of Himyar and Mannie Gray, will go to the post for the Suburban Handicap this afternoon the warmest favorite that has ever started for any of the great handicaps that have been run in this country. The public will not hear of anything but the midnight idol carrying off the prize, and there will be nothing short of a sensation if the Futurity winner of 1893 is beaten. The field will be smaller than ever before, and it to held by the admirers of Domino that it is simply a matter of going to the post and getting away within ten lengths of the other horses. Two or three days ago it was thought that there would not be more than four or five starters, but the withdrawal of Ramapo and Rey El Santa Anita has given hope in a number of quarters, and a few owners are out for second money.

Ramapo and Rev El Santa Anita were de ended upon to give Domino some sort of a race, but the former split his hoof, and although he showed no signs of inmeness at his work yesterday morning, he had lost his speed, and his owners and trainer concluded not to send him to the post. A hard race might mean the total disability for the entire season of their good five-year-old, and it is a wise move to keep him in the stable. Split hoofs, or more properly quarter cracks, are very annoying things, and give trainers no end of worry. Rey El Santa Anita has a bad split; so bad, in fact, that morning. This means that the California four year-old will not be run for some time.

There was quite an audience in the grand stand yesterday morning when Domino came out for his morning spin. The black fellow was as lithe as a panther, and looked ready to race for a king's ransom. He may not be a stayer, but he certainly is speedy, and is a great beauty into the bargain. Lakeland has paid great at tention to the colt, and has him fit and trained to the hour. The onlookers, and there were many men among them whose judgment entities their opinions to be received with respect, said that unless all signs were awry the Suburban of 1895 would be placed to the credit of Messrs, James R. & F. P. Keene. Taral will, of course, have the mount.

James R. & F. P. Keene. Tarsi will, of course, have the mount.

Rubleon was out, too, and moved with so much freedom that John E. McDonaid determined to give his superb chestnut another chance in first-class company. He will be ridden by Willie Migley. Bonny Sir Walter, always being asked to do wonderful things, and rarely failing to accomplish them, caught the fancy of many, but it seems too much to expect this game son of Midlothian to concede Domino two pounds and then beat him. Trainer Rollins says he has seen his horse at times when he fancied him more than he does at the present moment, but he will go to the post, and Sam Doggeit will try to get home first. Sam was worried a few days ago, when it leoked as though the field would be very small, for fear he would be compelled to go out and make the pace from the start. The presence of Song and Dance and Sister Mary puts an end to this, however, for either of this pair, and the mare in particular, can put the first mile in fast enough to suit all hands.

It was not decided to start Song and Dance until it was seen that Ramany would be a non-either of this pair, and the mare in particular can put the first mile in fast enough to suit all hands.

It was not decided to start Song and Dance until it was seen that Ramapo would be a non-starter. The Riemon Stables has second call on Griffin, and the gelding was announced as a candidate, second or third money being quite an inducement to shoot at the moon. W. B. Sink was after Griffin to ride Sister Mary, but he will now have to look elsewhere and do the best he can, Hamilton being the best man that is available. Declare is another outsider that is taking a chance of the lightning striking him, although as a matter of fact on a heavy, deep track this four-year-old would be a dangerous commodity, mud and plenty of it being exactly what he wants, as his feet and legs are note too good. Lazzarone is such an uncertain horse that he cannot be left out of calculations when considering the race. He may run well and he may run very poorly.

Superintendent Clarke has made every preparation for the accommodation of one of the old-time Suburban gatherings. The grounds are as lovely as nature and the gardener's art can make them, while the track is as fast as ever. It was deliciously cool at the bay yesterday, and the outlook for a crowd to-day is promising, although there is no denying that the interest in the Suburban does not promise great things, the balance of the programme does. To begin with, the public will see the great two-year-olds, Applegate, Handspring, the although the can outrun Gotham. Ridicule, The Butterflies, Jack of Spades, and Applause at five furlongs he can have the money and welcome.

Word was received yesterday from J. W. Mogers and other Eastern horsemen, who went at five furlongs he can have the money and welcome.

Word was received yesterday from J. W. Rogers and other Eastern horsemen, who went West expecting to race at Chicago, that their stables would be shipped East at once. With Clifford, Dorian, Magian, Henry of Navarre, Halma, Lissak, and all the Western flyers in the East, the racing this year should be phenomenally good. The adjournment of the Illinois Logislature without passing any bill legalizing betting is the death knell of racing in that State for two years.

Goodwin's Guide, giving the winners of all races up to the close of the Brooklyn meeting, is out to-day. It should be in hands of every follower of racing.

Broadchurch, in the Spirit of the Times, is responsible for the statement that Budd lobie, the well-known trotting horse man, will assume charge of E. J. Baldwin's string of thoroughbreds next fail. Boble married a daughter of Baldwin's some years ago.

Harvard Boys Take the Banner.

A special meeting of the interscholastic a. A., called or the purpose of deciding the protest against Ehrick, of Harvard School, was held yesterday noon. It was alleged that Ehrick was a freshman in the C. C., N. Y., and under the rules of the Interschol-astic A. A. was ineligible to take part in any of their games. When a quorum got together, it was found that the two delegates from De La Salte Institute wer missing. The usual motion was made to decide the protest at once. Delegate Sutro of Columbia Gram-mar School said it was not right to go on with the mar School said it was not right to go on with the meeting, as it was not fair to De La Saile institute, they being the investigators of the protest. JUSTICE GAYNOR AS REPERES In the Serap Between Mayor Schieren and the Senatde A. C.

Although Justice Brown of the Supreme Court of Brooklyn granted the order calling upon Mayor Schieren to show cause why he should not be compelled to grant a first-class theatrical license to the Seaside A. C., the argument of the motion took place yesterday before Justice Gaynor, as Justice Brown was presiding at the General Term. Edward M. Grout, who appeared for the club, said that the rules and regulations under which the exhibitions had been given had been approved by the police authorities, and that only recently the Mayor had granted a license to a similar club for exactly the same class of exhibitions.

Corporation Counsel McDonald contended that the club had abused its license. He read the affidavit of Police Captain Clayton, setting forth that it was necessary to employ a big squad of men at the exhibitions, and that in many in-that it was necessary to employ a big squad of men at the exhibitions, and that in many instances he had been obliged to stop hostilities in the ring.

Justice Gaynor, interrupting Mr. McDonald, said: "The Court has nothing to do with the police stopping these exhibitions and sending people home if there is any violation of the law. If there he a conviction under such a violation of an ordinance the Mayor has a right to revoke the ileone. This club applies for a first-class theatrical license, just as does any theatre. Such contests as you describe cannot be there under such a license any more than at the l'ark Theatre. The law gives a person the right to such a license, and the Mayor cannot sive one to this person and refuse one to that. I have seen Mayors of licooklyn I would not care to see clothed with such powers."

Mr. McDonald said that the real purpose of the club was to give prize fights.

Mr. Grout retorted that all the exhibitions had been given with the full knowledge of the police officials, who even weighed the gloves.

After some further argument between counsel, Justice Gaynor said:

"These boxing contests are like football, only there is not such brutality in them. More young men are maimed and injured at football. The club is applying for a first-class theatrical license, and nothing more. Why they should be allowed to violate it is something I cannot understand. The presumption is that if the license is violated the police will arrest the offenders. I shall grant this writ without doubt, unless the Corporation Counsel can submit some authorities sustaining his proposition. I have no power to go there and stop an exhibition. This Court has nothing to do with what may occur there. You may hand up authorities."

Justice Gaynor's decision is expected this morning, and if it is favorable last night's postponed exhibition will take place to-night.

New Brusswick, N.
